We are building up a new world
We are building up a new world

Topic: Anti-racism

Speaker: Rev. Elizabeth Carrier-Ladd

In the last few weeks there has been a hiring controversy within the UUA that has led to the resignation of the UUA President. Black Lives UU, an organization within the national UUA of folks working towards Black Lives Matter, has asked congregations across the country to dedicate Sunday morning to anti-racism work

Sunday, May 7th Service

Topic: Building A New

This morning, along with over 400 UU congregations across the continent, we will participate in the UU White Supremacy Teach In. This event was requested by Black Lives UU, a UU organization working towards the goals of Black Lives Matter within and beyond the UUA, following a hiring controversy at the UUA. Our service will look directly at how we are called to respond to the racism and white supremacy that lives in our world and in our faith. We are called to build the beloved community of all souls, and we cannot do that while so many of those souls are still greatly affected by racism. We will also welcome and dedicate new members into this beloved community that we are building together.
