Welcome & Announcements

Prelude (followed by a moment of silence)
Walking Up the Stairway at night (Davis-Davis)

Chalice Lighting

I must confess, my friends, the road ahead will not always be smooth. There will be still rocky places of frustration and meandering points of bewilderment. There will be inevitable setbacks here and there. There will be those moments when the buoyancy of hope will be transformed into the fatigue of despair. Our dreams will sometimes be shattered and our ethereal hopes blasted. We may again with tear-drenched eyes have to stand before the bier of some courageous civil rights worker whose life will be snuffed out by the dastardly acts of bloodthirsty mobs. Difficult and painful as it is, we must walk on in the days ahead with an audacious faith in the future. ... When our days become dreary with low-hovering clouds of despair, and when our nights become darker than a thousand midnights, let us remember that there is a creative force in this universe, working to pull down the gigantic mountains of evil, a power that is able to make a way out of no way and transform dark yesterdays into bright tomorrows. Let us realize the arc of the moral universe is long but it bends toward justice. Martin Luther King Jr. Where do we go from Here

Covenant

Love is the spirit of this church, and service its law.
This is our covenant: To dwell together in peace,
To seek the truth in love, and to help one another.

Extinguish Chalice

This is the way to go through life with a balance, with the proper perspective because you've given yourself to something greater than self. Sometimes it's friends, sometimes it's family, sometimes it's a great cause, it's a great loyalty, but give yourself to that something and life becomes meaningful. -Martin Luther King Jr., Conquering Self-centeredness. 1957

Unison Benediction

This Service is over. Our Service has just begun. Peace and unrest.

Speaker: Steven Starks * Leo Plomin

Topic: Serenity Farm

There is an immediate need for assistance to those just released from jail or prison. This is even more true for the newly released sex offender. Our purpose is to reduce the rate of recidivism for sex offenders by offering a comprehensive set of services to those who fit our Profile for entry, and choose to stay with us.

Sunday, January 14th, 10:30AM, Service

Speaker: Rev. D. Charles Davis

Topic: Walking Up the Stairway at Night

Life brings Uncertainty, Sometimes we take risk and we do not know the outcome. Paul of Tarsus wrote that faith is the substance of things hoped for. What helps you step towards your hopes?

CHILD AND YOUTH RELIGIOUS EXPLORATION

RE Calendar: Nicole Rice, dre@uuctc.org

We revisited our goals for strengthening our (RE) community that we developed in August. Check out our ideas below and ways you can help support the RE program in achieving our goals.

Get to know each other

Mystery Pals- A reminder for all those mystery pals out there: Don't forget to deliver letters on the following dates: 1/14, 1/21, 2/4, and 2/11.

Interview Project- We would love to have more participants in the interview project. If you are interested, stop by room 101/103 from 10:45-11:45 on any of the following dates: 1/14, 1/21/ 2/4 or contact Nicole for more information.

Have fun

We now have world religion tote bags available for check out. The next check out date is January 21st. These totes have fun family activities, stories, games, and resources on the following religions/practices: Islam, Christianity, Judaism, Baha'i, Buddhism, Unitarian Universalism, and Hinduism.

Support each other

The UUCTC is collecting items for the women's shelter. Please see collection boxes for more details.

More information about February's "Acts of Kindness" project coming soon.

Show up

RE volunteer training will be held on Sunday, January 21st at noon. This training is available for current volunteers and people interested in learning more about RE volunteer opportunities.

Life is a Snowflake

Life is a snowflake,
a free falling star
A fragile reminder of all that we are

A diamond of light,
a gem in the sun
A journey of hope
A new life begun

Born of a raindrop, laced by the breeze
Spinning through space
dancing through trees
