26 JANUARY 2014 CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

Motion was made at the December 15 Congregational Meeting to defer voting on the budget. With the current level of pledges and non-pledge income projected there will be a short fall in revenue for 2014. The estimated $6357.00 would have to come from the remaining capital funds.

Suggestions for generating non-pledge revenue include:

- Form a group to generate ideas for increasing non-pledge and building use revenue. Mark VanMeeter, Board President, agreed to be the point person; Beth Misner has agreed to be on the committee.
- There will be a brainstorming session in mid-January to explore revenue sources

A congregational meeting will be held Sunday, January 26 to approve the revised budget.

Mark VanMeeter, President, Board of Trustees

RE Has Volunteer Opportunities for the Spring!

Classroom guides help create the structure for their 1-4th grade class. They begin each period leading the chalice lighting, an optional check-in, and lighting the chalice. They share a short biography of a notable UU and introduce the workshop teacher. After that, they are on hand to help as needed to help out with the workshop. Guide teams for each class work out a schedule on a rotating basis, optimally serving about once per month. Right now, we could use one extra guide in the 1st-2nd grade class. We also need 2-3 helpers for the middle school classroom to be a second adult presence in the room each week.

Workshop rotation teachers share a passion or something they have knowledge about with our 1st-4th graders. Optimally, teachers will volunteer for three weeks, rotating between the three classes (1st-2nd grades meet together). Please let us know if there's something you would like to share, or, if a member of the R.E. council approaches you to teach a workshop, please consider sharing a little of yourself with our kids!

Special Projects: *Clean, re-organize, and help inventory our supplies in the R.E. closets and classrooms *Create Spirit Play story baskets for the preschool room *drive and/or chaperon youth for overnight lock-ins and events sponsored by the district *Help out on Spirit Circle Sundays- extra adult participation and guidance is always welcome *supervise youth volunteering at Family Promise (more info on this exciting new opportunity coming soon!)

Please contact Sheila (dresheila@gmail.com) or a member of the R.E. council (Kathy Coder, Cheryl Fowler, Frank Arnold, Beth Hoffmann, Kirsten Reynolds, or Rae Schnapp) if you are interested in helping in any of these areas, or if you have something else that you would like to help out in with R.E.

We know what we are, but not what we may be.
-William Shakespeare

He allowed himself to be swayed by his conviction that human beings are not born once and for all on the day their mothers give birth to them, but that life obliges them over and over again to give birth to themselves.

We experience ourselves our thoughts and feelings as something separate from the rest. A kind of optical delusion of consciousness. This delusion is a kind of prison for us, restricting us to our personal desires and to affection for a few persons nearest to us.

-Albert Einstein
