CHILD AND YOUTH RELIGIOUS EXPLORATION Last week, we said goodbye to Sheila Garrett, our now former DRE. We will move forward in a careful and thoughtful search for a new permanent DRE. I will be serving as Interim DRE, until someone has filled that position. The search committee consists of Sherry Tripodi, Alanna Steffen-Nelson, and Kathy Coder. I will be executing the summer curriculum already in place, as well as continuing the workshop rotation this Fall that was already established last year. You can get a hold of me via email, mille804@gmail.com or by phone 765-337-5193.

Thank you to those who helped put together story baskets for Spirit Play two Sundays ago. As we continue to get ready for Fall, we will need volunteers to help as classroom guides, especially for 4th-8th grade. In August, we will have RE training, as well as RE registration. Although it is still summer, the Fall RE schedule is in preparation. Please consider getting to know our children and sharing your talents with us. Barny Dunning and Amy French will be teaching our OWL (Our Whole Lives) sex education program this Fall as well. If you are a parent or guardian of a 7th-9th grader, please look out for registration forms coming soon! Finally, thank you to Rae Schnapp for her endless help this summer, working every Sunday with our children on our gardening theme, teaching about sustainability and food, as well as planting a pizza garden. Something to ponder with your children: what does agricultural sustainability have to do with social justice? Poverty worldwide? Your Interim DRE, Michelle Miller

ADULT RELIGIOUS EXPLORATION

•THE TWENTY MINUTE TUNE-UP Please join us for this Taoist Immortal Internal Exercise 6 Week Class taught by Master Jason Argos. Begins Thursday, July 3, 2014 from 11:15 a.m. to 11:45 a.m., UUC Room 101/103. $48 for 6 classes, to be paid at first class. Exercise level set for seniors; all ages welcome. During the first 20 minutes Master Argos will guide you through 16 exercises from the book, "Xing Yi Nei Gong" by Tim Cartmell (book is recommended but not required). During the last 10 minutes of each session Jason will share a powerful form of a technique known as bone marrow washing which is performed while standing still; this is thought to deter arthritis. As you become familiar with the 16 movements Jason will share more Nei Gong from his decades of Xing Yi study. Xing Yi and bone marrow washing, brought to China by Bodhidharma, has been passed down from ancient times. Possible benefits of this practice include:

- Improved kidney function
- Removes toxins and increases bone mineral density
- Eases arthritis symptoms
- Improved cardiopulmonary fitness
- Normalizes blood pressure
- Deeper, more restorative sleep
- Maximizes digestion, reduces appetite, reduces waistline
- Improves balance and reduction of falls
- Improves immunity
- Builds core strength and speeds recovery time
- Improves whole body-mind coordination

- CHANGE FOR CHANGE: The theme for 2014 is "Helping Our Community." The July/August C4C recipient is Family Promise® of Greater Lafayette, Inc. (FPGL). Family Promise is a non-profit 501(c)3 and non-denominational organization for families in transition. Part of a national network, FPGL is one of over 136 Networks across the United States. There are over 4500 congregations and 110,000 volunteers making up these Networks. Based on the support of volunteers and host congregations, Family Promise® (formerly Interfaith Hospitality Network (IHN)) programs are funded by donations, grants, and fundraising opportunities. Family Promise® builds programs from existing resources so they can be implemented quickly, and without major start-up costs. All the Family Promise® Networks are successful. Our statistics show that 89% of the families who complete our program are successful in finding and maintaining permanent housing along with employment or supportive financial assistance. Others even enroll in school. FPGL has begun to touch many volunteers within our Network as they prepare to care for families in need in a loving and caring way.
- WOMEN'S SHELTER COLLECTION The UU Church at all times has a bin located in the Fellowship Hall to collect items for the local Women's Shelter. Please consider donating new underwear for women and children (all sizes), shirts for women (all sizes), pens, hand sanitizer, small pocket memo pads. Thank you.

If you would like your picture added or updated, contact Rosemary Leary at 463-4246 or rleary207@aol.com. Look for a copy of the directory at the Newcomers' Table on Sunday—requested donation $3.00 to cover printing costs. Many thanks to Rosemary Leary for all her ongoing work with this project

LIBRARY PROJECT Since George Wulff retired as church librarian some two years ago, the library has been in need of new energy. We thank George for his diligent and careful work and hope he will be pleased to see a rebirth. A small Library Committee of Linda (Lou) Prokopy, Sallie Cooke and Christine Schertz are beginning a project to cull, re-shelve and clean up the library. You can continue to use the library and donate books. Please be patient and excuse any inconvenience as this will take some time to complete. Books recently donated will be shelved under a new system. If you have questions or concerns, or would like to help, please call Linda Lou Prokopy at 746-6926.

"Stories are a communal currency of humanity."

— Tahir Shah, in [Arabian Nights:
A Caravan of Moroccan Dreams](#)

"The Mole was bewitched, entranced, fascinated. By the side of the river he trotted as one trots, when very small, by the side of a man who holds one spellbound by exciting stories; and when tired at last, he sat on the bank, while the river still chattered on to him, a babbling procession of the best stories in the world, sent from the heart of the earth to be told at last to the insatiable sea."

— Kenneth Grahame, The Wind in the Willows

"The happy ending of the fairy tale, the myth, and the divine comedy of the soul, is to be read, not as a contradiction, but as a transcendence of the universal tragedy of man. ...Tragedy is the shattering of the forms and of our attachment to the forms... the two are the terms of a single mythological theme... the down-going and the up-coming (kathados and anodos), which together constitute the totality of the revelation that is life, and which the individual must know and love if he is to be purged (katharsis=purgatorio) of the contagion of sin (disobedience to the divine will) and death (identification with the mortal form)."

Joseph Campbell, from

"The Hero With A Thousand Faces,"
