Fellowship Team Leaders: Beth Misner & Barny Dunning.

CHILD AND YOUTH RELIGIOUS EXPLORATION I will begin having regular office hours this coming week, which are as follows: M 9-12 and T 9-12 or by appt. The RE search committee will be holding a parent meeting (date TBA) concerning the hiring of a new DRE. Correction from last week: the search committee for the new DRE is as follows, Sherry Tripodi, Alanna Steffen-Nelson, Beth Hoffmann, Sarah Cannon, and Rev. Charlie Davis. Fall RE is right around the corner. I am in the process of confirming RE guides, as well as workshop rotation volunteers. The curriculum is based on the Six Sources of our UU church. Our summer RE still has approximately five weeks left. Last Sunday, we took a close up look at the reproductive life of flowers with our magnifying glasses. The kids also took pictures for an outdoor photo journal that they will have as a remembrance of their RE summer. Our pizza garden to the right front of the church is flourishing! Our basil will provide us with yummy pesto this Sunday that the children will help make. Something to ponder with our children: How is the science of nature a highly spiritual and/or magical event? As we discover the inner workings of nature, and label plants and parts of plants, how does that encourage, rather than discourage the mystery of the powers of life? Your Interim DRE, Michelle Miller

ADULT RELIGIOUS EXPLORATION

•THE TWENTY MINUTE TUNE-UP Please join us for this Taoist Immortal Internal Exercise 6 Week Class taught by Master Jason Argos. Begins Thursday, July 3, 2014 from 11:15 a.m. to 11:45 a.m., UUC Room 101/103. $48 for 6 classes, to be paid at first class. Exercise level set for seniors; all ages welcome. During the first 20 minutes Master Argos will guide you through 16 exercises from the book, "Xing Yi Nei Gong" by Tim Cartmell (book is recommended but not required). During the last 10 minutes of each session Jason will share a powerful form of a technique known as bone marrow washing which is performed while standing still; this is thought to deter arthritis. As you become familiar with the 16 movements Jason will share more Nei Gong from his decades of Xing Yi study. Xing Yi and bone marrow washing, brought to China by Bodhidharma, has been passed down from ancient times. Possible benefits of this practice include:

- Improved kidney function
- Removes toxins and increases bone mineral density
- Eases arthritis symptoms
- Improved cardiopulmonary fitness
- Normalizes blood pressure
- Deeper, more restorative sleep
- Maximizes digestion, reduces appetite, reduces waistline
- Improves balance and reduction of falls
- Improves immunity
- Builds core strength and speeds recovery time
- Improves whole body-mind coordination

 - UU HISTORY September 7. This class will cover topics such as: How did this denomination get to where it is today and how did Unitarian Christianity and Universalist Christianity evolve into the free religion we have today? By reviewing some of the controversies of the past we see how they shape our present. Intended for everyone new and old to UU congregations.
 - EXPLORING MEMBERSHIP: PARTICIPATING AT UUC, WEST LAFAYETTE October 5. Learn more about the history of our UU church and what it means to be a member. This course is intended for visitors who are interested in learning more about membership.
 - DISCOVERING YOUR SPIRITUAL PATH November 2. What gifts have you kept from your religious heritage? What have you discarded? How do you wish to improve yourself and the world? Come explore and share your stories with others. By speaking our truth and listening to others, we can deepen the meaning of community. Intended for everyone.

“[Research] suggests that what we think of as free will is largely an illusion: much of the time, we are simply operating on automatic pilot, and the way we think and act – and how well we think and act on the spur of the moment – are a lot more susceptible to outside influences than we realize.”

~Malcolm Gladwell, Blink: The Power of Thinking Without Thinking

UU CHURCH ANNUAL RETREAT! The 2014 UU Church Annual Retreat will be held at Ross Hills Camp, from Friday evening, August 1st through Sunday afternoon, August 3rd. This is a great time to meet and get to know fellow UU members, and has been a tradition in the church for over 30 years.

The Retreat includes workshops, a Saturday night dance, meals, campfires and informal hanging out. Workshops will include yoga, drumming, a discussion of our Director of Religious Exploration search, a nature hike, a birding workshop, and a presentation on Native American medicine, with more workshops still to be scheduled. Workshops run on Saturday morning, Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning; there will also be a service led by Martha Gipson after lunch on Sunday.

Accommodations are available in the A-frame lodge building or at a number of electric and non-electric campsites near the lodge – get your reservations in early! Registration forms are available at the church, either in the office or in the narthex, or get in touch with Eric or Janice Thiel.

OPEN MEETING FOR RE PARENTS AND GUARDIANS TO GET INPUT ON NEW DRE HIRE 9:30 AM, August 2, Ross Camp during retreat As part of the process of hiring a new DRE, an open meeting will be held for the parents and guardians of RE participants to voice their thoughts on the future of the RE program. Specifically, we ask parents to consider the following questions; what would they like us to ask the prospective DRE, what strengths of the RE program would they want to carry forward, and is there anything that they wish the DRE would start for the RE program? The meeting will be held at the retreat but all are welcome; there is no cost. Childcare will be provided. If you are unable to attend, your input is still welcome. Please email your answers to the above questions to Sherry Tripodi at sherrytripodi@yahoo.com by August 3rd to ensure that your input is heard before interviewing candidates for the job. For further information, contact DRE Search Committee member Sherry Tripodi, sherrytripodi@yahoo.com

LIBRARY PROJECT Since George Wulff retired as church librarian some two years ago, the library has been in need of new energy. We thank George for his diligent and careful work and hope he will be pleased to see a rebirth. A small Library Committee of Linda (Lou) Prokopy, Sallie Cooke and Christine Schertz are beginning a project to cull, re-shelve and clean up the library. You can continue to use the library and donate books. Please be patient and excuse any inconvenience as this will take some time to complete. Books recently donated will be shelved under a new system. If you have questions or concerns, or would like to help, please call Linda Lou Prokopy at 746-6926.

“How can we be ‘free’ as conscious agents if everything that we consciously intend is caused by events in our brain that we do not intend and of which we are entirely unaware? We can’t.”

~Sam Harris

“Honestly, I cannot understand what people mean when they talk about the freedom of the human will. I have a feeling, for instance, that I will something or other; but what relation this has with freedom I cannot understand at all. I feel that I will to light my pipe and I do it; but how can I connect this up with the idea of freedom? What is behind the act of willing to light the pipe? Another act of willing? Schopenhauer once said:

Der Mensch kann was er will; er kann aber nicht wollen was er will (Man can do what he will but he cannot will what he wills).”

~Albert Einstein

THE SOCIAL JUSTICE COMMITTEE: There is much to be done in the social justice arena. If you are interested in becoming involved in our activities, please join us at our next meeting--Tuesday, July 22 at 7:00 pm in Room 101/103 . If you have questions, concerns, or ideas, contact co-chairs Joan Marshall, jmarshall900@yahoo.com, & Tom McConville, tmconville1200@comcast.net.

- CHANGE FOR CHANGE: The theme for 2014 is "Helping Our Community." The July/August C4C recipient is Family Promise® of Greater Lafayette, Inc. (FPGL). Family Promise is a non-profit 501(c)3 and non-denominational organization for families in transition. Part of a national network, FPGL is one of over 136 Networks across the United States. There are over 4500 congregations and 110,000 volunteers making up these Networks. Based on the support of volunteers and host congregations, Family Promise® (formerly Interfaith Hospitality Network (IHN)) programs are funded by donations, grants, and fundraising opportunities. Family Promise® builds programs from existing resources so they can be implemented quickly, and without major start-up costs. All the Family Promise® Networks are successful. Our statistics show that 89% of the families who complete our program are successful in finding and maintaining permanent housing along with employment or supportive financial assistance. Others even enroll in school. FPGL has begun to touch many volunteers within our Network as they prepare to care for families in need in a loving and caring way.
- WOMEN'S SHELTER COLLECTION The UU Church at all times has a bin located in the Fellowship Hall to collect items for the local Women's Shelter. Please consider donating new underwear for women and children (all sizes), shirts for women (all sizes), pens, hand sanitizer, small pocket memo pads. Thank you.

OUTfest Mark your calendars now for Saturday, August 2, 4:00 pm to midnight when Greater Lafayette will once again join our GLBT community in our annual pride celebration, OUTfest. The event is held in downtown Lafayette and will feature live bands, food, information, dancing, entertainment, and a family area. It is always a fun filled afternoon and evening. Our Social Justice Committee will host a booth as we have in past years, and will need volunteers for two shifts, 4:00 to 6:00 pm and 8:00 to 10:00 pm. To volunteer for a shift, contact Joan Marshall (jmarshall@yahoo.com). If you aren't able to help with the booth, just plan to attend--it's a wonderful event. We realize it is the same weekend as our church retreat, but if you want to take a brief break from the retreat, we'd be happy to see you!
