Sunday, November 19th, 9:00AM, Forum

Speaker: Bill Baker and/or Cynthia Barnes Slater.

Topic: Oneness of Humanity: It's real, and it's the future, but we're not good at it yet.

Racism is based on injustice, division, and long-standing estrangement; so it can be overcome with justice, unity, and patient love. Let's talk about that and support each other practicing it. I'm definitely an amateur, but maybe some of the principles and tools from the Baha'i Faith can help.

Sunday, November 19th, 10:30AM, Service

Speaker: Rev. D. Charles Davis

Topic: The American Individual vs the American Citizen?

Emerson preached self reliance. Thoreau wrote about civil disobedience. The Pledge of Allegiance proclaims liberty and justice for all. How can we make people be part of a group called "Americans" yet allow them to remain individuals?

For the Right to Learn: Malala Yousafzai’s Story- “She grew up in a world where women were supposed to be quiet. But Malala Yousafzai refused to be silent. She defied the Taliban’s rules, spoke out for education for every girl, and was almost killed for her beliefs. She Persisted: 13 Women Who Changed the World- “Chelsea Clinton introduces tiny feminists, mini-activists, and little kids who are ready to take on the world to thirteen inspirational women who never took no for an answer, and who always, inevitably and without fail, persisted.”
