Sunday, March 26th Service

Speaker: Kelly Besecke

Topic: Finding spiritual meaning in a society that sometimes makes it hard to find.

Educated spiritual seekers are often looking for the intersection between "what's inspiring" and "what makes sense." In a society that can feel increasingly demoralizing and nonsensical, what are some of the tools that progressive religion offers to help us find intellectually satisfying spiritual meanings in our own lives and be "activists for meaning" in the larger society?
