The cemetery is an open space among the ruins, covered in winter with violets and daisies. It might make one in love with death, to think that one should be buried in so sweet a place.”

Topic: Indiana Memorials

Over the past 8 years I have wandered around northern Indiana taking photographs. One of my favorite subjects has been cemeteries. They connect us with history and lives unknown. There is a lot one can learn from people one has never met.

NURSERY

Christina Wright, Nursery@uuctc.org

The children in our neighborhood are anticipating all those warm sunny afternoons that lie ahead. They, however have need for action! No, lounging in a hammock with a good book probably won't do it for them. Here are a few ideas to keep the boredom away.

- make up an obstacle course
- have a photo scavenger hunt
- create a sculpture out of recyclables
- practice tumbling/cartwheels
- water balloons
- have a backyard pot luck picnic
- find insects and animals to photograph
- check out library summer programs
- call a relative or friend
- hike a new trail
- host a neighborhood car wash
