NURSERY

Christina Wright, Nursery@uuctc.org

Manners really matter as I am discovering more and more these days. My husband and I generally only role model please, thank yous, bless yous, and such; trying to encourage it out of the children with more genuine feeling. It has required patience from us and when in the midst of public events a reminder may be necessary. As they are getting older and taking on their own responsibilities they are getting better at showing appreciation and consideration for others.

If only I had come across this little song earlier. Music as a lesson is always the way to go with my youngest. She's almost always humming a tune.

The Manners Song in the tune of Twinkle Twinkle Little Star:

We say, "thank you" we say, "please."

We don't interrupt or tease.

We don't argue, we don't fuss.

Listen when folks speak to us.

Share our toys and take our turn.

Manners are easy to learn.
