Responsive Reading 531, The Oversoul – Emerson

Message The Divinity School Sermon of 1838

Song 44, We Sing of Golden Mornings

Extinguish Chalice

I look for the new Teacher, that shall follow so far those shining laws, that he shall see them come full circle; shall see their rounding complete grace; shall see the world to be the mirror of the soul; shall see the identity of the law of gravitation with purity of heart;
and shall show that the Ought, that Duty, is one thing with Science, with Beauty, and with Joy.

- Emerson, Divinity School address 1838

Unison Benediction

This Service is over. Our Service has just begun. Peace and unrest.

Postlude Menuet (Solveig Grace)

Sunday, July 22nd, 10:30AM, Service

Speaker: Rev. D. Charles Davis

Topic: Sinners in the hand of an Angry God

On July 8 1741 Jonathan Edwards preached his most famous sermon. Indeed it may be the most famous sermon in US history and has a profound impact on this country to this day. It has made Christianity a religion of wrath rather than a gospel of love.
