Welcome and Announcements

Prelude "Beautiful Mess" by Jason Mraz

Call to Worship

We are now faced with the fact, my friends, that tomorrow is today. We are confronted with the fierce urgency of now. In this unfolding conundrum of life and history, there is such a thing as being too late. Procrastination is still the thief of time. Life often leaves us standing bare, naked and dejected with a lost opportunity. The tide in the affairs of men does not remain at the flood — it ebbs. We may cry out desperately for time to pause in her passage, but time is adamant to every plea and rushes on. Over the bleached bones and jumbled residues of numerous civilizations are written the pathetic words, ' Too late.' -Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Chalice Lighting

Remember, procrastination is a virtue. It is really just a higher form of patience.

Opening Hymn Song 318 We would be One Covenant

Love is the spirit of the church, and service is its law.

This is our covenant: to dwell together in peace, to seek the truth in love.

And to help one another.

Offering

Offertory Linus and Lucy (Vince Guaraldi)
George Winston solo piano

Sharing Peace (Please turn to your neighbor and say, " May peace be with you.")

Message Realizing Intentions

Speaker Bill Welge

Closing Hymn Song 94 What Is this Life

Chalice Extinguishing

Doest thou love life? Then do not squander time, for that is the stuff that life is made of.
Benjamin Franklin

Unison Benediction.

Speaker: Jody Tishmack

Topic: Living off Solar Energy

Patrick and Jody Tishmack have powered their home with solar energy since 2012. Solar PV energy technology is clean, safe, and cost effective.

Renewable energy can make your home more sustainable, help reduce greenhouse gas emissions, and control the cost of utilities. Having your own energy supply offers you energy security and peace of mind.

NURSERY

Christina Wright, Nursery@uuctc.org

Lately, there have been a lot of discussions held, in my circle of friends, about how best to raise children.

The line I often hear is, “_____ happened to me and I turned out just fine.” I’m never certain of a response to this that wouldn’t cause more frustration for both parties.

However, today I found this quote and find it fitting. “Instead of raising children who turn out okay despite their childhood, let’s raise children who turn out extraordinary because of their childhood.” -L.R. Knots

Now through October 19

The art fair is accepting applications for artists. Please contact artfair@uuctc.org for more information. Amanda Estes, Chair
