CHILD AND YOUTH RELIGIOUS EXPLORATION

RE Calendar: Nicole McCabe, dre@uuctc.org

Kudos to Sherry Tripodi, Kat Braz, Amanda Estes, and our yoUUth for a successful weekend. We kicked it off with the annual talent show and soup cook off. Then the youth stayed overnight to prepare for the next morning's pancake breakfast fundraiser to raise money for an upcoming youth trip to Chicago.

See below for Maxwell's original poem that was shared at the talent show and some pictures from the pancake breakfast.

Upon a Canary and an Ocean Weeping

An anchor tugs a boat along in a stormy sea
On its deck, a canary screams, for to be set free.

The sailor treads on eggshells to man the ship sans aid
And he cries out, alone, where dreams and reality fade.

But lo, tis not a normal bird, caged by human greed:

It is a wearied phoenix, whose love has been betrayed.

To last this squall, to remember when a wing might forget to fly,

In all his shame, the sailor allows a sigh.

For as the storm comes to an end, the wind carries no goodbye.
