Amy Bolman French and Barny Dunning are planning a weekend-long intensive OWL workshop for 7th-9th and/or 10th-12th graders in June and I'm trying to gauge how much interest there is. If you are interested, please take indicate which weekend works best from the options below. I know that is really far away, but it takes advance planning. Please indicate in the comments section which grade level group you're interested in (7th-9th) or (10th-12th). Feel free to share this or have people contact Nicole McCabe at dre@uuctc.org for more information about the program.
