Chalice Extinguishing The Blessing of Creativity by

Rev. Barbara Wells ten Hove
May you find the deep peace of creation flowing in your spirit.
May your senses awake to the creative spark that lives in you.
May you walk in beauty and seek to create beauty wherever you go.
May you take the risk of discovering the divine within you and around you.
And may the spirit of life bless you with courage and hope as you live creatively with others by your side.

Benediction May Our Lives, with adaptation by Christopher A. Rothbauer
May our lives be reflections of the beauty, joy, and creativity that is possible in the world, and may the love we find in this place sustain us as we go our separate ways.

Postlude "Moki Canyon Lullaby" music by Michael R Hicks

NURSERY

Christina Wright, Nursery@uuctc.org

I enjoyed some one on one time with my youngest yesterday. She has really started opening up lately. Her ability to communicate has improved vastly in a short amount of time. It was a light hearted and silly moment. However, I learned a few things about her I did not understand before.

“Listen earnestly to anything your children want to tell you. If you don't listen eagerly to the little stuff when they are little, they won't tell you the big stuff when they are big, because to them all of it has always been big stuff.” Catharine M. Wallace
