CHILD AND YOUTH RELIGIOUS EXPLORATION

Religious Exploration Nicole McCabe (dre@uuctc.org)
<https://regluu.wordpress.com>

We will be sharing our favorite UU memories during this week's TFAA. Here are just a few of my favorite all time UU memories:

I remember my very first "Time for All Ages" and how nervous I was. I unpacked my "Going to Grandma's" suitcase onstage to share all about me.

My most embarrassing memory is when I had to pretend to be an enthusiastic puppy to Charlie's grumpy cat.

I loved dancing in last year's holiday program and singing RESPECT with Hilary.

My very first DRE event was a meet and greet roller skating activity. Amanda, thanks for "meeting" me.

I will always remember Isabella's performance of "We Will Rock You" from last year's talent show.

The youth fun day and exploring Indy last year was truly memorable. It was my first escape room.

I love how Lola always came to the Halloween party dressed as a witch. She also sent me a card for every occasion.

Tie-dying at the picnic is always a fun time.

Bidding on the Appalachian Trail hike is one of my all-time favorite experiences and UU memories!

NURSERY

Christina Wright, Nursery@uuctc.org

When the wind blows and the frost is in the windows, I tend to want to hide away with warm and cozy things. I have to remind myself that these can still be times for great adventure. Bundling up and getting out there is well worth the effort!
