A Vision for Unitarian Universalism in a Multicultural World

With humility and courage born of our history, we are called as Unitarian Universalists to build the Beloved Community where all souls are welcome as blessings, and the human family lives whole and reconciled. With this vision in our hearts and minds, we light our chalice.

By the UUA Leadership Council

Covenant

Love is the spirit of this church, and service is its law. This is our covenant:

To dwell together in peace, to seek the truth in love, and to help one another.

We Have a Calling in the World

We have a calling in this world:
We are called to honor diversity,
To respect differences with dignity,
And to challenge those who would forbid it.
We are people of a wide path.
We must be wide in affection
and go our way in peace.

By Jean M. Rickard

Benediction

Go In Peace, Seeking Justice

When I say go in peace, I don't mean 'go in mindless oblivion.'
When I say go in peace, I don't mean 'go without challenging yourself or others.'
When I say go in peace, I don't mean 'go in utter ease and comfort.'

When I say go in peace, I mean 'go in peace, seeking justice.'
I mean, 'go in peace, committed to equal rights and opportunities for all.'

When I say, go in peace, I mean 'Go in the peace that is created when, together, we build communities of true solidarity, deep compassion, and fierce unrelenting love.'

Go in peace gentle people.

Postlude
